Reclaim the Night in 8 steps

REspect

Respect is a must

Treat each other with respect and kindness. All bodies rock, and there are no wrong ways to dance! Everyone should feel free to move and express regardless of gender, sexual orientation or origin.

REalize

Harassment is at zero

Flirting is cool and pleasurable when all the parts are in it! Jokes and comments are funny when they do not harm, objectify, or degrade others. Can you see the difference?

REaffirm

Consent and mutuality are the key

'Yes' is necessary, and 'No' must be respected. We can also read "yes" and "no" in how others react to our moves, but it's never too much to ask first. Things get really fun when it's mutual!

REfresh

Stop a little bit

Take care of yourself and your friends, and have fun. Rest and hydrate, cool off your head for a bit.

REthink

Do you know what you are consuming?

Alcohol and substances are out there and people use them, but you gotta know what you're doing. Having fun is way cooler when you're safe, smart, and informed.

REspond

Look after each other

Look, those to blame for messing around with people are the ones doing it, even if they're your friends. If you see something sketchy or know who's behind it, don't brush it off.

REset

Change starts with us

Own your night and fill it with good vibes! Starting with your crew, let's create a party culture where sexism and other discriminations are excluded from entry.

REsponsibility

This place doesn't wash its hands of it

We're the hosts of your party and the guardians of your fun. As promoters of nightlife culture, we embrace diversity, equality, and inclusivity in our space. Help us to create an environment free from harassment and discrimination.

Come talk to us if you need or see something sketchy! You can recognize us by the fluo pin.
